South Carolina melodic punks KEVIN K & THE BOWERY KATS explode into 2025 with riff-heavy new album 'SHADOW WORK 38!'

Hot on the heels of 2024's highly acclaimed ROSEWOOD CD, KEVIN K & THE BOWERY KATS return with SHADOW WORK 38, a ten song album that fuses classic NYC punk with early 70's Stones - songs that detonate with Paul Westerberg/Johnny Thunders-ish zeal and radio-tight pop craft. Atomic pop for a dystopian world!

Kevin K is from the first wave of US punk and has been releasing records since 1978. SHADOW WORK 38 is his 38th solo album, and with his red-hot band the BOWERY KATS giving tight and muscular treatment to many Kevin K classics, it's an album he thinks might be his best.

Feline loving Kevin K is all too aware that cats are harbingers of secret knowledge, and an ever present reminder of the dark, or shadow side of one's psyche. Shadow work is the cat that watches you with its penetrating gaze, reading your deepest thoughts. They are symbols of intuition, independence and transformation - traits that can be applied to Kevin K's relocation from Detroit to South Carolina two years back - a rejuvenation that has spawned not one, but two classic albums with the Bowery Kats (Garrick Turner on bass, Karl Durden drums), an experienced, powerful trio with an oversupply of musical ability and direction.

SHADOW WORK 38 shows off KEVIN K's ability to reinvent (and innovate) his sound as an artist, further illustrating his songwriting depth. Mixing ballads, rock, blues, metal, punk, and pop influences into one cohesive sound, SHADOW WORK 38 feels nostalgic and familiar yet still has a distinctly modern polish. The blend of melodic punk with Rolling Stones-inspired swagger sees the album weave poignant and evocative themes of shadows and introspection into its electrifying soundscape.

Kevin K and the Bowery Kats - rock 'n' roll's brightest flame casting the largest shadow across 2025. 'SHADOW WORK 38' is out now on Vicious Kitten Records - Cat. No VKR019
